Lima Rural Development Foundation: Internships 2025 | 2026 New Online Application

Description

Lima Rural Development Foundation is a dynamic non-profit organization dedicated to fostering sustainable development in rural communities across Peru. With a mission to empower local populations through innovative agricultural practices, community engagement initiatives, and holistic development strategies, we strive to create lasting positive impact in the regions we serve.

Lima Rural Development Foundation offers a range of internship opportunities for students and young professionals passionate about international development, agriculture, and community empowerment. Our internships provide hands-on experience, mentorship, and the chance to contribute to meaningful projects that directly impact rural communities in Peru.

Responsibilities

- Project Support: Assist in the implementation of various development projects aimed at improving agricultural practices, enhancing community infrastructure, and promoting sustainable livelihoods.
- Research and Analysis: Conduct research on relevant topics such as local agricultural techniques, community needs assessments, and best practices in sustainable development.
- Data Collection and Monitoring: Support in data collection, monitoring, and evaluation activities to track project progress and measure impact.
- Community Engagement: Collaborate with local community members to understand their needs, gather feedback, and ensure their active participation in project activities.
- Administrative Tasks: Assist with administrative duties such as documentation, report writing, and logistical coordination for project activities.

Qualifications

- Enrolled in or recent graduate of a relevant undergraduate or graduate program (e.g., International Development, Agriculture, Environmental Studies, Sociology, etc.).
- Passion for international development, sustainable agriculture, and community empowerment.
- Strong communication skills and ability to work effectively in multicultural settings.
- Proficiency in Spanish is preferred but not required.
- Previous experience in community development projects or non-profit organizations is a plus.

Job Benefits

- Hands-on experience in the field of international development and rural community empowerment.
