- Assist in conducting research related to industrial psychology to enhance employee well-being, motivation, and productivity.
- Support the design and implementation of HR policies, programs, and initiatives.
- Contribute to the development and delivery of training modules aimed at enhancing employee skills and performance.
- Participate in the analysis and interpretation of HR-related data to provide insights and recommendations for improvement.
- Engage in employee engagement activities and assist in organizing events to foster a positive work culture.
- Contribute fresh ideas and perspectives to ongoing projects, leveraging your academic knowledge and skills.

Qualifications

- Pursuing a degree in Human Resources, Industrial Psychology, Organizational Psychology, or a related field.
- Strong interest in HR practices, organizational behavior, and industrial/organizational psychology concepts.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Analytical mindset with the ability to interpret data and draw meaningful conclusions.
- Proficiency in Microsoft Office Suite.
- Proactive attitude, eagerness to learn, and a collaborative spirit.

Job Benefits

- Valuable hands-on experience in HR and industrial psychology within a dynamic and innovative company.
- Mentorship from seasoned professionals in the field.
- Exposure to diverse projects and opportunities for skill development.
- Networking opportunities within the industry.
- Potential for future career opportunities based on performance and company needs.
